EXPERT INVESTOR STATUS CONFIRMATION

To be qualified as an expert investor, you must establish that your business, or the business of the company you work for, engages in direct involvement in buying, selling, or holding of capital markets products, whether as a principal or agent. This confirmation serves as an indication of your proficiency in this field. You would need to provide the necessary supporting documents.

1. Letter of employment stating your position and responsibilities in the company (dated within 3 months);
2. Source document stating that the company deals with capital market products (e.g. regulatory license).
